1 links to US programs in computational physics and science

see HTML

2 Schools that offer degrees in dynamics and control

See also http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_systems_engineering_universities#Systems_Engineering_degrees_in_the_USA

#	university name	degree name
1	Case Western Reserve University	Has MS in control. But I had such a hard time navigating the web pages. Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department 10900 Euclid Avenue 321 Glennan Building Cleveland, OH 44106 Phone: 216.368.2800 Fax: 216.368.6888 Mail Stop: 7071 Try this link for application. Fees are expensive. $1,660 per one credit hr !
2	UCSD cymer center for control systems and dynamics. San Diego, CA.	http://ccsd.ucsd.edu/
3	Washington univ. in st. Louis, good theoretical based control masters degree.	See here but fees are too expensive, $1,838 per credit hr!
4	RPI	Has MS in control systems. See for Fees. $1,454 per one credit hr. Private university.

5	Control Theory Research Group, The University of Alabama in Huntsville. univ. 301 Sparkman Dr NW Huntsville, AL 35805	Ranked 179 in the US. EE dept. Tuition per hr $1,678.00 per 3 hrs, grad resident. $4,000 per 3 hr non-resident. It is semester system. The course catalog is here click on course description. Make sure to select graduate from the small menu at top. Graduate is 500 level and above. The degree is actually an MS in EE. The EE dept is here For tuition, a break down by credit hr is here Class schedule is here most of the courses meet twice per week, which is nice.
6	Univ. Of Twente, MSc Systems and Control, The Netherlands	See University of Twente
7	Arizona State University (USA)
8	The University of Tennessee (USA)
9	Oklahoma State University (USA)	Program has been cancelled for some reason ! here
10	CMU robotics	Masters in Robotics A two year master's program that teaches the fundamentals of robotics theory and practice through coursework and independent research. Courses are here And class schedule And Visiting/Non-Degree Tuition listed as $565 per unit. For visiting/non-degree see this PDF file Visiting/Non-Degree Student Advisor Amy Yearwood Associate Director of Enrollment Services 5000 Forbes Avenue, Warner Hall A19 Pittsburgh, PA 15213-3890 Phone: 412-268-9796 Fax: 412-268-6651 amymly@andrew.cmu.edu
11	Univ of Manchester, England	Advanced MSc in control systems here
12	ETH Zurich	Master Robotics, Systems and Control here

13	TU/e, Eindhoven University of Technology, Eindhoven, Netherlands	Master's Program Systems and Control here
14	Louisiana State University, Department of Mathematics, Baton Rouge, LA.	MS in applied math, with concentration in Control Theory. https://www.math.lsu.edu/grad/msapp1 class schedule
15	Stanford Univ, California	MS in aerospace. But Good courses in control and dynamics. https://aa.stanford.edu/curriculum/msAero.php#courses
16	University of Michigan	Master of Engineering in Automotive Engineering, many courses in control and dynamics. class schedule fees too expensive
17	Cranfield University, UK	Autonomous Vehicle Dynamics and Control and fees MSc by Research Part-time 17,500 pounds.

3 Schools ranking

Some US school rankings, most are from US news source

1. engineering 2008
2. electrical engineering 2007
3. civil engineering 2007
4. mechanical engineering 2006
5. bio-medical engineering 2006
6. image1 image2 scanned pages of listing of US universities from an old handout.

These are some schools I found in the US which is relatively low cost for non-residence.

1. Univ. Minnesota undergraduate about 1200 per 3 units. but much more for graduate.
2. univ. of Iowa, Iowa city. taking up to 8 units, same rate as resident. same as Iowa state univ. in ames Iowa
3. University Of Massachusetts, Amherst.

4 per credit hr cost

This is the cost per one credit for some schools. Hard to find this information on the net.
